Bridal.

—Concert at the Riverside rink to-night.

—The census of La Crosse shows a population of 21,000.

—Denniston has a fine assortment of pipe melons, fresh from the south.

—Mr. F. W. Oon, of the Tobacco Reporter, Edgerton, was in the city to-day.

—Wisconsin Lodge No. 14, I. O. O. F., occupy Odd Fellows' hall this evening.

—Dr. S. Judd returned this morning from a very pleasant trip through the east.

—The little son of Mr. H. G. Carter fell from a hammock yesterday afternoon, and broke his arm.

—Mrs. John H. Myers and daughter Mand, started this morning for Oberlin, Ohio, for a visit with Mrs. Myers' parents.

—Badger Council, Royal Arcanum, hold a regular semi-monthly meeting this evening, lodge room in Luppini's block, East Milwaukee street.

—Mr. C. Lilly, one of the oldest railway engineers in this city, is very sick at his home in the first ward, and it is said he cannot long survive.

—Mr. Will Pond, son of Dr. and Mrs. S. A. Pond, left yesterday afternoon, for a month's vacation, to be spent in St. Paul and other northwestern cities. He was accompanied by his sister, Miss Mary Pond.

—There will be a commencing on the Orfordville charge, commencing August 12, and continuing one week. Come and stay through, bringing tents and families.

SAMUEL S. LEROY, Presiding Elder.

—What everybody says must certainly be true, and as it is the general remark on the streets to-day, that this is a warm day, we take it as a fact, and memorandum it accordingly, as the warmest of the season. Ditto last night.

—The family of Mr. W. H. Ashcraft are the latest sojourners on the shores of Geneva Lake, they having arrived at Porter's park yesterday afternoon. This makes three parties now in camp, Dr. Q. O. Sutherland's family and Mr. and Mrs. E. Leavitt, being already at that favorite summer resort.

—H. A. Stone has completed the enumeration of the census of the third ward, and is now footing up the totals. He found 1,480 inhabitants in the third; 36 soldiers and sailors, and 190 militia. At this rate the population of the city will hardly reach 11,000.

—The persons in charge of the decorations at the park have displayed a great deal of taste in arranging their material. At the river end the terraced stage rises gradually, and back of that is a solid bank of evergreen. On each side are draped large American flags and the stage itself is very handsomely arranged, making altogether, the handsomest music hall in the state, outside of Milwaukee.

—Messrs. F. O'Brien and E. F. Smith, of this city, have formed a copartnership for the purpose of doing a general mason work. Both members of the firm have had considerable experience in all kinds of work in their line, and they feel confident in being able to give perfect satisfaction in all work entrusted to them. Address: F. O'Brien, P. O. box —, or at the Gazette office.

—The huge bank of clouds in the western sky last evening at sunset, were piled in such a strange and varied manner that it called the attention of many of our citizens, and when the heavy roar of the storm which passed to the north of the city was heard, many supposed a cyclone was approaching, and some were looking for places of safety. The show of strange looking clouds was truly a grand sight, and one rarely witnessed.

—The funeral of the late Mrs. C. N. Millmore was held at her late home on North 11th street, second ward, at three o'clock yesterday afternoon, the attendance being quite large. Rev. Dr. M. G. Hodge, pastor of the Baptist church, conducted the service, at the conclusion of which the remains were taken to Oak Hill cemetery for interment. Messrs. C. O. Burnham, M. A. Ott, P. G. Stricker, E. H. Peltos, John Slightman, and F. P. Pierson being the pallbearers.

—The Choral Union concert this evening promises to be a great success. A special telegram received from Rockford, states that two hundred people from that city will be in attendance, and if everything turns out well, the sign, "singing room only," will be put out at a very early hour. Those having the affair in charge say that they will do all they can for late comers, but that they cannot be held responsible for any one killed in crush after 7:30 o'clock. There are no reserved seats, so please come early.

—It is said the tobacco warehouse recently burned at Stoughton when rebuilt will be erected in this city. If such should be the case, it will be the means of bringing an immense trade to the city that has heretofore gone elsewhere.

Madison Democrat. We hear it whispered that at least three of the burned warehouses, if rebuilt, will be located in this city, and perhaps more, as Janesville affords better shipping facilities within the tobacco growing belt than any other place.

—F. H. Davis, son of Dr. A. F. Davis, arrived with his wife last evening from La Crosse, Wisconsin, where he has been engaged in an extensive grocery business since 1869, at which time he accompanied his father when he went to lay out and build up that city, and has had charge of Dr. Davis' real estate during his last seven years' practice of medicine in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Davis will be the guests of their parents, No. 31 West Milwaukee street, during their stay in the city.

—Mr. D. O. Ward, the mill-wright of this city, on Saturday completed the extensive repairs of Johnson & Winterling's mill at Jefferson.

—Mr. W. T. Van Klee, of the Milwaukee mill, at Jefferson, has just received a car load of new mill, and is now putting it up, and making a new mill of it, with a capacity of one hundred barrels of flour per day. Mr. Ward, with a force of men, commenced this morning overhauling the Ford & Meyer mill, located at the head of the raceway, this city, and will put in a new stone foundation, and new timbers where needed. Mr. Ward's services are in great demand for this class of work.

—The Beloit Free Press, of last evening, contains the following river items: The yacht "Sea Gull," from Rockport, arrived in port at 11:30 o'clock and moored at the Free Press dock. Passengers and crew well, and report no fever.

—The little fore-and-aft rigged schooner "Nautilus," from Herefordshire, expected of being a piratical craft, has been laying off and on in the outer harbor for a day or two, attracting the attention of spectators who linger about the wharves anticipating the capturing of the "frail craft."

—Frank Williams' yacht "Beity" lies partially submerged in three fathoms of water near the light house. Weekers are preparing to raise her and tow her to Kline Point.

BAZAAR AND DANCE.

The Good Watch Carried off by Fate—The Most Popular Young Man also at Footnote.

The parties under the care of Father Christopher Kelly, viz: Brodhead, Albany and Footnote, held one of the most entertaining, pleasant and successful bazaars and dance on the evening of the fourth of July, at Brodhead's hall, in Brodhead, ever held in Southern Wisconsin. Hundreds of the elite from all the surrounding country were gathered together on the occasion, and one of the best string bands in the country furnished the music for the occasion, and the light fantastic toe tripped over that hall as never before; and many a lass won her lover that never had loved before, but the question is who carried off that gold-headed one, and how much money was raised by it?

—The Gold-Headed Girl, Nicholas Moore, of Brodhead, received 26 votes, of Albany, 20 votes, of Footnote, 10 votes, and of the other 100 votes.
